

"Alice in Wonderland"

This year's tour play, "Alice in Wonderland," was truly in the tradition of successes at South. Once again going on a tour of the state, the cast put the play on at many different schools. Its story went on, as it continued to post high ratings in district and sectional competition.

Work on "Oliver" began in spring of 1967. Tryouts were held and the parts were auditioned. Finally after many strenuous rehearsals, "Oliver" was performed for Lansing and South. Truly, it deserved the standing ovations it received.
